Adjunct Professors

Master of Science in Respiratory Care

Canisius College invites applications for adjunct professor positions in its Master of Science in Respiratory Care (MSRC) program. We are looking for experienced, talented registered respiratory therapists who want to bring their enthusiasm for respiratory care into the educational arena. You can work from your own home. Since all coursework is online relocation is not required. Successful candidates will act as Masters Thesis/Project advisors.

The Master of Science Program:

Canisius College's online Master of Science in Respiratory Care is a fully online program designed for Registered Respiratory Therapists (RRTs) who possess a baccalaureate degree. This innovative program is designed to respond to the needs of today's professionals, so that students may continue their education while maintaining their current life circumstances. This 33 credit hour master's program consists of 7 core courses and 4 specialty track courses. The program provides students with the opportunity to select from two specialty areas: Respiratory Therapeutics and Respiratory Care Education. Students in the Respiratory Therapeutics track will complete a Masters (capstone) Project while students in the Education Track will complete a Masters Thesis. For more information about the program, please visit <http://www.canisius.edu/respiratory/>

Qualifications:

Minimum qualifications include an earned Master's degree, the RRT credential, a current license to practice respiratory care, and four years of full-time experience as a Registered Respiratory Therapist with at least two years of respiratory therapy clinical experience including critical care experience. Experience in web-based teaching, research design, and project evaluation is desirable. Ph.D., advanced credentials, knowledge of technological communication methods, and teaching experience in an accredited respiratory therapy program are preferred.

For more information about these positions, contact Ms. Sandra McKenna (mckennas@canisius.edu), Academic Program Director, Professional Studies, or Dr. Art Taft (tafta@canisius.edu), Program Director, MSRC Program. To apply, please send your CV and a letter of interest to hr@canisius.edu or mail to Office of Professional Studies, Canisius College, 2001 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14208.
