

Non-Tenure Track (NTT) Position Description
(Log#20-065)
DEPARTMENT OF RESPIRATORY THERAPY
LEWIS COLLEGE OF NURSING AND HEALTH PROFESSIONS
GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Respiratory Therapy in the Lewis College of Nursing and Health Professions at Georgia State University in Atlanta invites applications for a 9-month non-tenured track position at the rank of Clinical Instructor or Clinical Assistant Professor. The Program in Respiratory Therapy is a fully accredited program with approximately 50 students per class. The department is comprised of 7 full-time and several part-time faculty and staff.

The position offers an exciting opportunity to begin or further a career in respiratory therapy education in a large, well-established program. Bachelor and Master degree programs are offered in respiratory therapy, as well as an A.S. to B.S. degree bridge program. Join a team of well-respected faculty, with over 100 students and multiple large, well-equipped clinical sites. Teaching is valued and collaboration is required. The Department of Respiratory Therapy is located in a large urban university and affiliated with major medical centers throughout the metro Atlanta area and United States.

Teaching, student laboratories and research laboratories in the Department of Respiratory Therapy are housed in the Parker H. Petit Science Center. Opened in March 2010, this 50,000 square-foot state of the art facility houses programs in biology, chemistry, nursing, nutrition, public health, respiratory therapy and the Georgia State University Neuroscience Institute. Additional information about the Department of Respiratory Therapy can be found at this URL: <http://respiratorytherapy.gsu.edu/>

For the Clinical Instructor position a Master's degree with 18 graduate hours in respiratory therapy is required and candidates must be willing to begin a doctoral program within 12 months of hire. For the Clinical Assistant Professor position a doctoral degree is required. Applicants with at least 2 years of clinical and/or didactic teaching experience should apply. Candidates must be eligible for licensure in Georgia. Teaching responsibilities will depend upon the needs of the department and the abilities of the candidate. Preference is given to those holding the RPFT credential.

Georgia State University is the Southeast's leading urban research institution with over 20 Schools and academic units and grants degrees in more than 250 programs. Georgia State University offers educational opportunities for traditional and nontraditional students at both the graduate and undergraduate levels by blending the best of theoretical and applied inquiry, scholarly and professional pursuits, and scientific and artistic expression.

Salary is competitive and is commensurate with experience and qualifications. A benefits package that includes major health, dental and life insurance, as well as tuition remission and pension is available.

Review of applications begin immediately, the search will remain open until the position is filled. The position will begin August 2019.

Screening of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

To apply, please provide the following information:

1. Letter of application, summarizing your experience and qualifications for the position
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Final candidates will be asked to provide contact information for three references and an official transcript of all degrees completed.

Submit electronic applications to Mr. John Wang at jwang8@gsu.edu. Please include Respiratory Therapy Search Committee (Log#20-065) in the subject line. Alternatively, submit paper applications to: Mr. John Wang, Respiratory Therapy Search Committee (Log# 20-065), Lewis College of Nursing and Health Professions, Georgia State University, P.O. Box 4019, Atlanta, GA 30302-4019.

Questions regarding the position may be directed to the chair of the search committee, Dr. Doug Gardenhire, dgardenhire@gsu.edu Chair and Program Director, Department of Respiratory Therapy.

Georgia State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action university and accommodates individuals with disabilities. All applicants must comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.